

UPWARD RUSH IN LAST HOUR

Sluggish Movement Gave Way to Animated Advance at End of Day.

INFLUENCED BY ORE DEAL

Renewed Apprehension Over the Cotton Crop Has Effect on Wall Street.

NEW YORK, October 5.—A sluggish upward movement of prices gave way in the last half hour of the trading day to a buoyant and animated advance, which made no account of a large volume of business in the stocks of last for the rest of the day.

Wall Street gave attention to the ore market, a steady advance in the price of iron ore being reported today. The movement followed the upward trend of all other stocks.

Writing a few days past the speculation in cotton in the early market has taken on the appearance of a steady advance.
